3. Sand the raised bumps to show the white core of the cardstock using a scrap of sandpaper
4. Onto a large scrap of White Cardstock draw lines of colour ranging from light to dark using the Stampin' Blends – stripes of Light Lemon Lime Twist, then Dark Lemon Lime Twist, Light Granny Apple Green and then Dark Granny Apple Green. Repeat with the Blackberry Bliss and Berry Burst Stampin' Blends.
5. Layer the dies on the coloured cardstock and die cut leaves from the greens and flowers from the pinks
6. Die cut the large label from White cardstock scrap
7. Using Berry Burst ink, stamp a greeting onto the top right corner of the die cut
8. Adhere layers of White cardstock, sanded embossed Granny Apple Green cardstock, then the white label onto the front of the card
9. Layer the die cut leaves and flowers next to the greeting on the label
10. Add Holographic Dots to the centres of the flowers and scattered around the label.
